

Book Club: Fostering Effective Communication

On August 16th, CREW Chicago members hosted a book club at several locations throughout the City and the suburbs. CREW Chicago members enjoyed a fun evening of networking while also discussing Adam Grant's book "Originals: How Non-Conformists Move the World". Topics discussed included what innovation means to us, how to champion new ideas, speaking truth to power, managing emotions and the healthy benefits of procrastination. Click here to see photos of the event.

Click here to see photos

