

Dahlia Cohen is a Junior BBA student at the University of Michigan Ross School of Business emphasizing in real estate and finance.

She has completed internships in commercial brokerage with Millennium Properties and in development with Banner Real Estate Group. This coming summer Dahlia will be interning at J.P. Morgan Chase as a Commercial Real Estate Analyst in Chicago.

Dahlia is a part of a variety of real estate focused organizations. She is the Vice President of the Alternative Investments Club where she oversees the club's real estate investment competition and she is the head of the real estate desk for the club's stock portfolio. She is on the Real Estate Club's board and is a member of the Michigan Ross Real Estate Fund which invests actual capital in real estate transactions across the country.

Dahlia is from Highland Park, IL and looks forward to returning to Chicago after graduation.