

Rachel Silverman Bio:

Rachel is currently a third year law student at Vanderbilt School of Law where she is a member of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honors Society, the Law and Business Society, the Women Law Students Association and the Jewish Law Students Association. Last summer Rachel worked as summer associate in the Chicago office of Greenberg Traurig and will start as a first year associate at Greenberg in the Fall of 2018. She hopes to focus her practice on real estate law. Prior to law school, Rachel earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan where she graduated with a B.A. in English with honors and a minor in business from the Stephen M. Ross school of Business. During college, Rachel interned at the Environmental Protection Agency in the Office of Public Engagement in Washington, D.C. and at Organizing for Action in Chicago, Illinois. Rachel is a Chicago native and is looking forward to returning home in May, 2018. In her free time, Rachel enjoys running and travel.