

John D. Fontaine is a Director and Team Leader of the Chicago Regional Office mortgage team. Mr. Fontaine assumed his position in January 2015, where he oversees the origination and management of commercial mortgage loans in thirteen Midwestern states. Prior to joining MetLife, John previously held positions with several institutional investors including The State Teachers Retirement System of Ohio, Prudential, Heller Financial and New York Life. Mr. Fontaine possesses a wide breadth of institutional quality real estate investing, lending and asset management experience on all major property types gained via the supervision of the closing of $4.6 billion of investments. Mr. Fontaine earned a BSC in Real Estate and Urban Economies from The Ohio State University and a MBA from Dayton University.