

Barbara Ellis Racic
Corporate Real Estate Solutions

Barbara Ellis-Racic is Senior Vice President at Corporate Real Estate Solutions (CRES) a boutique real estate services firm dedicated to helping organizations find the right space, in the right place, at the right price. CRES clients benefit from leadership and direction in the strategic planning for leased and owned commercial space, acquisition and disposition of leased and owned real estate, lease restructuring, office, retail and industrial relocations, buy vs. lease decisions, and developing denovo locations. Most active verticals include: healthcare, non-profits, service firms, and entrepreneurs and start-ups.

Barbara has experience in the asset classes of office, industrial and retail real estate, and services the Loop, the neighborhoods of Chicago all of the suburban Chicago submarkets, Southeast Wisconsin and northwest Indiana. Barbara has been with CRES since 2001.

She is active in business groups including Commercial Real Estate Women, Healthcare Practice Advisors, The Dental Consortium, Health Practice Advisors and the Association of Consultants to Non-Profits. Barbara also provides pro-bono consulting services through the Arts and Business Council and has been active with the board of Visceral Dance Chicago.